

ALHFAM Annual Meeting and Conference Fellowships

Ten fellowships to attend the ALHFAM Annual Meeting and Conference at Sauder Village in Archbold, Ohio, June 23-26, 2023 are available to any member who has not previously received a fellowship. ALHFAM welcomes applicants who reflect the diverse nature of our industry and audiences. All are encouraged to apply, including members of minority groups, Indigenous persons, and persons with disabilities. Those who have not attended an ALHFAM annual conference or are new members of ALHFAM are especially encouraged to apply and will be given higher priority.

Fellowships include full early-bird conference registration ($450) and $200 towards travel and lodging, for a total of $650. Fellowship applications are due by March 24th, and recipients will be notified by April 21st. Successful applicants will receive a code to cover registration and then will receive a check for the remainder. All three of the following requirements must be completed to be considered for a fellowship.

To apply for a fellowship, please complete the questionnaire and submit it along with a résumé and a brief cover letter stressing the following:

- The value of attending the annual meeting and conference to your work.
- Whether you will be presenting a session at the conference.
- The nature of your financial need (e.g., institutional budget restrictions; layoff or unemployment).
- How long you have been an ALHFAM member, your site or museum affiliation, if you are an independent contractor, and, if a student, the name of your school and area of study.
- How you can contribute to ALHFAM and help further our Strategic Work Plan 2021-2023.

Materials should be submitted in Microsoft or Google Doc compatible formats.

Please submit questionnaire, cover letter and résumé by March 24, 2023 to:
